

Shade Plants for Butterflies

Partial Shade	Partial Shade	Full Shade
Ageratum Asters -May not get quite as large as their sunny cousins, Catchfly Columbine Dill and Parsley are both good host for Black swallowtails Dutchman's breeches Foxglove Daylilies Dianthus- Some varieties do very well in the shade. Globe Amaranth- adds a lot of color & nectar to garden Goldenrod Impatiens Lobelia	Marigolds - can do great with very little sun Milkweeds Red -Swamp milkweed A. incarnata -Butterfly weed A. tuberosa Monarda Moonbeam Coreopsis Nicotiana Periwinkle Pink turtlehead Purple Coneflower Rudbeckia Salvia - Lady in Red Shasta Daisy - Seems to do ok in partial shade Sweet Alyssum Thyme Violets	Bleeding heart Shooting star Ferns Hosta Plantain lily Cardinal flower Meadow rue